

LES ROCHES ROUGES

In the heart of the Côte d'Azur, azure blue, pure white and ochre red are the colours celebrated in the hotel Les Roches Rouges, perched on the water's edge, close to the Esterel. Located in Saint-Raphael, in a preserved natural environment opposite the Ile d'Or, between the pine and tamarisk trees, this hotel benefits from a Fifties Modernist design.

THE BIG BLUE

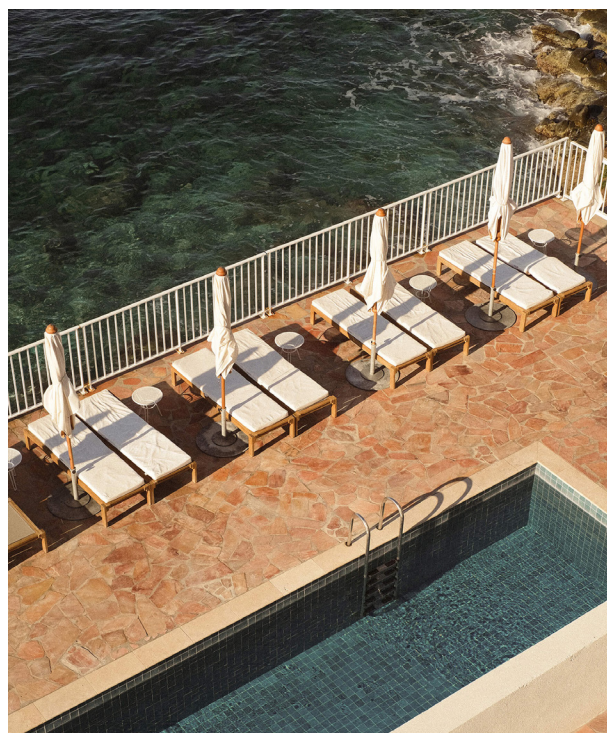

To step into the hotel Les Roches Rouges is to step out of the world and to delight in the pleasures of Provence, its flavours and fragrances. Here, you can enjoy long days in the sunshine, pamper yourself, savour the passing hours, and taste the simple yet sophisticated joys of a holiday on the coast... Les Roches Rouges is the essence of understated luxury, simplicity, conviviality, where the immensity of the sea, mild climate and an exquisite natural environment combine to create a truly exclusive, authentic and refined setting.

ROOMS AND SUITES

The architecture of the hotel gives full reign to nature, the sea and its Mediterranean garden. Guests can enjoy this spectacle at any hour of the day, in the hotel's light-filled, streamlined rooms whose colours are inspired by the blue of the sea and the red rocks of the Esterel, with touches of orange, ochre, lemon yellow and deep blue. With their modern aesthetic, understated luxury and plain furniture, each room reflects the Riviera way of life.

All rooms and suites include open bathroom with shower, custom-made single marble sink, separate toilet, Dyptique welcome products, tablet in bedrooms with a personalised playlist and selection of films inspired by the hotel's unique environment, sound system, air-conditioning, custom-made wooden bar, vintage, antique and custom-made furniture, selection of objects and books inspired by holidays on the coast and Provence.

TWO RESTAURANTS, TWO BARS AND A ROOF TERRACE OVERLOOKING THE SEA

The restaurant, «Récif» (before known as «La Terrasse»), one Michelin star, on the roof terrace of the Les Roches Rouges overlooks the sea, from which the Chef, José Bailly, naturally draws his inspiration to offer dinner guests refined Mediterranean dishes, which change according that morning's catch delivered by sea, at foot of the hotel. A second hotel restaurant «La Plage» serves an authentic, simple, generous Mediterranean menu. The latter has its own bar with its own atmosphere. During the day, on the beach, by the waterside, a second "beach hut" bar serves cocktails and light meals to enjoy at all hours or as you watch the sun sink slowly into the sea.

TWO SWIMMING POOLS AND A WELLNESS AREA

The hotel benefits from two swimming pools: a natural seawater measuring almost 30 metres long cut into the coastal rock and a swimming lane.
